

2017 Newsletters

The organisation of newsletters will change this year. Fortnightly updates and information bulletins will be posted to the website along with class information and work samples. In the research related to the Strategic Direction 3 of our School Plan, it was determined that further endeavours to improve communication with the community was wanted and encouraged. Our first step is to begin working with the information provided on the website and the community notice board.